

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Omaha Beer Fest Tickets On Sale March 1st

OMAHA, NE February 27, 2017 – The 2017 Omaha Beer Fest on Friday and Saturday, June 9-10 will settle into its new permanent home this summer at Horsemen’s Park. It will be the first infield event ever held at the racetrack.

Tickets for this event will be available online beginning at 9am on Wednesday, March 1st. Please visit www.omahabeerfest.com and click on the green BUY TICKETS button in the upper right hand corner to select and purchase your tickets. “We are excited to announce that the ticket prices will remain the same as last year $35 in advance for General Admission and $55 in advance for VIP.” says Mike Newlin, Vice President Racing Operations and General Manager at Horsemen’s Park. “The infield of our racetrack is an ideal location for large outdoor events such as Omaha Beer Fest. At this year’s event, we will enhance the move in process, supply close parking, and provide added marketing opportunities for the craft breweries.”

Omaha Beer Fest is the largest beer festival in Nebraska and will offer fans a chance to sample hundreds of unique American craft beers, ciders and hard sodas. Attendees will love the central location, the ease of parking and the excitement of the fun festival experience.
